AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

RAC asserts the following affirmative defenses to RAH's Complaint without assuming any burden of proof that it would not otherwise have:

FIRST DEFENSE
(Failure to State a Claim)

RAH's Complaint and each claim for relief therein fail to state a claim upon which relief can be granted.

SECOND DEFENSE
(Non-Infringement)

RAC has not infringed and does not infringe, either directly, indirectly, contributorily, or by inducement, any valid and enforceable claims of the Asserted Patents either literally or under the doctrine of equivalents, willfully, or otherwise.

THIRD DEFENSE
(Invalidity)

The claims of the Asserted Patents are invalid for failure to satisfy one or more of the conditions for patentability specified in Title 35 of the United States Code, including but not limited to §§ 101, 102, 103, 112, and 132.

FOURTH DEFENSE
(Prosecution History Estoppel, Prosecution Disclaimer, Judicial Estoppel)

RAH is estopped from construing the claims of the Asserted Patents in such a way as to cover RAC's activities because of RAH's prior conduct; RAH or the applicant's amendment, cancellation, or abandonment of claims before the U.S. Patent Office; RAH or the applicant's admissions or other statements made to the U.S. Patent Office; RAH's prior statements made in or to this Court or any other court; and/or prior rulings by this Court or any other court.

FIFTH DEFENSE (License)

Upon information and belief, RAC has an express and/or implied license to the Asserted Patents as a result of prior licenses to the Asserted Patents granted by RAH to third parties.

Upon further information and belief, to the extent RAH's infringement contentions in its Complaint are based in whole or in part on the allegation that the Asserted Patents are essential to the International Color Consortium ("ICC") standard or any other standard and that RAC's products are operable or have been incorporated into products operable according to certain standards set forth by the ICC or other standards organizations, RAC has an irrevocable right to a license under the Asserted Patents on a non-discriminatory basis on reasonable terms and conditions .

SIXTH DEFENSE (Equitable Defenses)

All or some of RAH's claims for relief are barred, in whole or in part, by the doctrines of waiver, implied waiver, laches, prosecution history laches, equitable estoppel, and/or other equitable remedies.

SEVENTH DEFENSE
(Limitation on Damages Due to Failure to Mark)

In its Complaint, RAH alleges that RAC infringes certain apparatus claims in the following Asserted Patents: U.S. Patent Nos. 6,995,870; 7,312,897; 7,729,008; 7,830,546; 8,416,444; 8,760,704; and 8,817,314. In addition, U.S. Patent No. 7,280,251 contains both apparatus and method claims. RAH and/or RAH's licensees, however, have failed to mark articles allegedly practicing the inventions claimed in the Asserted Patents. Accordingly, RAH's claims for damages for alleged infringement of the Asserted Patents are limited under 35 U.S.C. § 287.

EIGHTH DEFENSE
(Time Limitation on Damages)

To the extent RAH is entitled to recover damages for alleged infringement of one or more of the Asserted Patents occurring prior to the filing of RAH's Complaint, RAH may not recover damages for any such alleged infringement committed more than six years prior to the filing of the Complaint under 35 U.S.C. § 286.

NINTH DEFENSE
(Limitation on Costs Due to Invalidity)

To the extent any claim of the Asserted Patents is found invalid, RAH is precluded from recovering costs under 35 U.S.C. § 288.

TENTH DEFENSE
(No Injunctive Relief)

RAH is not entitled to injunctive relief because any alleged injury to RAH is not immediate or irreparable and because RAH has an adequate remedy at law, if any remedy is appropriate.

RESERVATION OF ADDITIONAL DEFENSES

In addition to the defenses described above, RAC reserves all defenses under Rule 8(c) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the patent laws of the United States, and any other defenses, at law or equity, which may now exist or in the future may be available based on discovery and further factual investigation in this case.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

RAC hereby incorporates by reference its responses to all paragraphs in RAH's Complaint as if fully set forth herein. RAC denies that RAH is entitled to any of the relief set forth in the Prayer for Relief in the Complaint or any other relief.

WHEREFORE, RAC prays for relief as follows:

- A. That the Court enter judgment in favor of RAC and against RAH;
- B. That the Court dismiss RAH's Complaint and the claims therein, with prejudice;

- C. That the Court order RAH to pay RAC's attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 285 and/or other applicable authority; and
- D. That the Court grant RAC such other and further relief as it may deem just and equitable.

JURY DEMAND
